

SABBATH & SLAVERY

REVELATION 13:11

Then I saw a second beast, coming out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon.

WHAT THEY SAID

J.N ANDREWS

The first Adventist to have connected American slavery with the Lamb-like beast “speaking like a dragon” in Revelation 13 was the young Adventist scholar John Nevins Andrews. For Andrews, who would go on to become the church’s first official missionary and its third General Conference president, slavery was a wicked and evil thing and it was one of the attributes of the dragon-like speaking of the two-horned beast.

WHAT THEY SAID

ELLEN G. WHITE

*In the South the spirit of slavery is not eradicated;
it has only been smothered for a short time. Lt 99,

But he who expects to see the land freed entirely from this curse, or even to see slavery contentedly confine itself within certain limits, we can but regard as laboring under a false hope; for the character which the prophetic pencil has given to the two-horned beast, a symbol of our country, is that he shall speak as a dragon!

Prophecy gives us no ground to hope for reform here; the beast speaks like a dragon. People may caress him never so fondly.... they cannot reform his mouth: he will speak like a dragon still. The prophecy does not say that at first he spake like a dragon, but at length reformed his speech, and breathed forth a just and Christ like spirit.

“

His future history presents no redeeming feature. He will continue to bellow forth his dragon voice, till he shall be cast into the burning flame, and the remnant whom he will persecute shall take their stand of victory on mount Zion with the lamb .

“

Nor is the fact to be disguised, that the professed church is now the right arm of the slave power. This great fact identifies the Protestant church as a part of Babylon, with absolute certainty. Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, February 21, 1854

SABBATH & SLAVERY

REVELATION 18:1-2, 4, 9-13

After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor. 2 With a mighty voice he shouted:

‘Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great!’

Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

“Come out of her, my people,’[b]
so that you will not share in her sins,
so that you will not receive any of her plagues;

9 “When the kings of the earth who committed adultery with her and shared her luxury see the smoke of her burning, they will weep and mourn over her. 10 Terrified at her torment, they will stand far off and cry:

“Woe! Woe to you, great city,
you mighty city of Babylon!

In one hour your doom has come!’

11 “The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her because no one buys their cargoes anymore— 12 cargoes of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet cloth; every sort of citron wood, and articles of every kind made of ivory, costly wood, bronze, iron and marble; 13 cargoes of cinnamon and spice, of incense, myrrh and frankincense, of wine and olive oil, of fine flour and wheat; cattle and sheep; horses and carriages; and human

J.N ANDREWS

The churches are the bulwark of American slavery

“

The “speaking” of the nation is the action of its legislative and judicial authorities. By such action it will give the lie to those liberal and peaceful principles which it has put forth as the foundation of its policy. The prediction that it will speak “as a dragon,” and “exercise all the power of the first beast,” plainly foretells a development of the spirit of intolerance and persecution GC 88 pg. 441
